THE HOBBO'S RAGTIME.

Sometimes our tune is lively,
And sometimes mighty slow,
According as the weather's
Dark or clear;
But no matter what the trouble,
Or how the wind may blow,
The hobbo has his ragtime
All the year.

The injunction procured by Abner Hord against George Snedegar, restraining him from dividing the crop of tobacco raised last summer upon the farm of Mr. Hord, came up Friday in Flemingburg before Judge Harbeson on the motion of Snedegar to dissolve the injunction. Judge Harbeson refused, however, to dissolve the injunction. T. D. Slattery represented Mr. Hord.

LEXINGTON TOBACCO MARKET

The Bluegrass City Suddenly Looms Up as a Rival of Louisville and Cincinnati

Lexington Herald.

According to the records on file thus far since the season opened last fall, more than 17,500,000 pounds of tobacco has been sold on the Lexington tobacco market. Most of the tobacco has been grown in the Bluegrass section of the State, and is all White Burley.

The crops have all been offered in the loose condition and sold at auction to the highest bidder. The prices have been excellent during the entire season, better perhaps than on any other market in the world.

For the tobacco that has been purchased more than $2,000,000 has been paid out to the growers and the larger part of this amount was to men who were in great need of funds with which to purchase the necessities of life.

The amount paid out for the tobacco, $2,000,000, does not include, possibly, perhaps, another half million of dollars that has been paid out by the warehousemen for labor, etc., the receipt of which money has been of great benefit to the community. One purchaser alone has shipped 950 carloads, which is about 40 trainloads, from Lexington.

The 950 carloads equal 14,000 hogsheds and the purchaser was the American Tobacco Company, at an average of 1 1/2 cents per pound.

UP IN COURT

Purdon Bros., the Printers, Charged
Saturday With Contempt

Pardon Brothers, publishers of The Mason Independent, were arraigned before Judge Whitaker Saturday afternoon to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt, having refused and failed to appear in Court Friday as commanded, after being legally summoned by the Chief of Police.

They were represented by Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell, and upon whose advice, so they informed the Court, they did not appear because he told them there was no law for such action and the whole business was illegal.

Mr. Frank P. O'Donnell admitted in open Court that he had counselled his clients to act as they did in the matter, and said if an error had been committed he alone was responsible for it and not Purdon Bros.

Upon the above statement the defendants were dismissed, and the case continued until 2 o'clock this afternoon, to determine who is responsible in the matter of defying the Court's mandates.

The proceeding is the outcome of two articles which appeared in the last issue of The Independent detailing violations of the Sunday closing law and other infractions of the City Ordinances, and in which the Police, if not directly, were by inference charged with being derelict in discharge of their duty.

As to the police of the City of Maysville, it is simple justice in saying that there is not a city in the State that has a more efficient force—intelligent, sober, fearless and painstaking in the performance of a distasteful, dangerous and thankless job.

It is the duty of every good citizen to withhold and assist them in every way possible. Stop your knocking and do more boasting.

The stockholders of the Ohio River and Columbus Railway Company at Ripley have elected E. H. Blair, E. E. Galbreath, Chambers Baird, C. J. Finger, E. T. Kirker and J. C. Newcomb, Directors. E. H. Blair was elected President to succeed D. Sullivan.

S. Straus of the firm of Hays & Co., proprietors of the New York Store, has bought out the interest of his partner and today assumes charge as sole owner of this popular drygoods establishment. Mr. Straus has managed the affairs of the concern for the past ten years, the success of which is due to his wise administration and business tact. The New York Store is known far and near for its courteous treatment and fair dealing, treating all alike, and never misrepresenting its wares. Aside from his excellent qualifications as a business man, Mr. Straus stands high in the community as a most worthy and enterprising citizen, and, along with THE LEDGER, his legion of friends wish him unbounded success and prosperity in his enlarged scope of merchandising.

FOR PRESIDENT,

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
CHARLES E. HUGHES, of New York.

ALL good men have declared from the beginning of Time that they have faith in the ultimate sanity of the people. Mobs may slaughter, destroy and burn and wreak imaginary vengeance upon the innocent as well as the guilty; they may blow up half the world with dynamite bombs and what will they accomplish? Nothing.

Law and Order in Kentucky Before Tobacco or Anything Else.

Anarchy leads only to further hellish atrocities.

Shall Peace and Order and everything else in Kentucky be jeopardized in the interest of Tobacco?

Shall Law and Order be slaughtered to make a tobacco holiday?

Have thousands of Kentuckians lost their reason over this simple industrial question?

Is there nothing else in Kentucky save Tobacco?

Are not the factories, the merchants and other enterprises entitled to some peace, respect and consideration?

Shall arson and murder be committed that Tobacco may sell for 15c per pound?

Things have come to a pretty pass in old Kentucky when the entire Commonwealth is torn asunder and shaken to its foundation by this unholy Tobacco War.

Are there not enough sane, law-loving and law-respecting men and women in Kentucky fearless and intelligent enough to stand together for the enforcement of the law?

Are the good people of Mason county to submit to the threatened intimidation and outrage without lifting a hand or raising a voice?

Thank God, that Maysville has spoken for LAW AND ORDER and has sent a message to her sister cities declaring that there shall be no compromise here with outlaws, malefactors and intimidators, whether they parade under the name of any society or under the ruffian soubriquet of "night riders."

The Editor of THE PUBLIC LEDGER was a tobacco grower for twelve years himself and by the sweat of his brow cultivated several large crops and practically sold them for nothing (except one crop) to greedy buyers. That was before the American Tobacco Company entered the field. Our sympathies are all with the farmer, but when the night rider and intimidator enter the arena and with whip, torch and gun leave a trail of fire and blood over the State, it is time to call a halt, and THE PUBLIC LEDGER, for one newspaper, will never lend a line of its influence to further the infamous business or to further inflame the distorted public mind.

I, as a tobacco grower, and you, as a tobacco grower, are entitled to only our share of Justice under the law. Class legislation is inconsistent with our democratic form of government. Beware of all special legislation in the interest of tobacco or any other single product. It can never stand.

Farmers, remember that tobacco growing is not the sole honorable industry in the State of Kentucky. The factories, the merchants and the other commercial enterprises of our State are each entitled to the protection of the law, for it is only under the law that any industry can prosper.

Right now, in the very midst of this unholy campaign of night riding, barn burning and tobacco bed scraping and murder, and all the other anticipated outrages which are sure to occur to prevent the raising of a 1908 crop, it is well, Mr. Farmer, to pause and weigh well the consequences.

What you sow, you may expect to reap. Better not endeavor to fly in the face of nature, whose mills grind the obdurate to powder.

The supremacy of the law is bound to prevail in the end, and remember—

That it is only by the mandates of law and Justice that you can expect to win your fight against the evil that is termed the Tobacco Trust.

THERE are twelve men, either of whom is willing to take up the perils of the Public Printership at Washington. The printing establishment should be accepted as a "horrible example" of what Government ownership is. It is always in trouble, and the scheme of government could be radically and properly simplified if the institution could be abolished all together. Mr. STILLINGS ran the most sensational pace of all the Public Printers there have ever been. It is a very short one.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HEDGES MURDER

By Maddened Tobacco Growers Arouses Entire State

Diabolical Crime Shows to the World the Need of Martial Law

The cold-blooded murder of Hiram Hedges, one of the peaceable and industrious farmers of Nicholas county, last Friday night by a band of fanatical night riders, brief mention of which was made in Saturday's PUBLIC LEDGER, shows to what extent this unholy tobacco war is being carried, and that unless this campaign of arson and assassination is suppressed by Governor Willson and the county officials, that some steps should be taken to have the Federal Government step in and give to our citizens the protection to life and property guaranteed under the Constitution.

The following fuller details of the murder of Farmer Hedges are taken from late dispatches:

This is the first night rider murder in the Bluegrass and the news of the frightful affair spread with great rapidity.

It is said that instead of 25 men as first reported, at least 80 participated in the attack. Some of the men wore masks and all were armed.

CAME LATE IN NIGHT.

The first warning the Hedges home had of the approach of intruders came when a heavy stone was hurled against the house. It awakened the family and Mr. Hedges and his son started for the door to get them to go away. Both were undressed but Hedges, Sr., carried a shotgun. He looked out the door, and seeing the size of the crowd returned and set down his gun, being afraid to fire.

Mr. Hedges, Sr., returned to the door and peering through asked what they wanted. They told him to come out. Hedges did not at first comply.

"You s— of a b—, you had better come out or we will make you," said the leader. He opened the door partly and then a shot from a shotgun was heard. Other shots ensued and Hedges dropped to the floor mortally wounded, the shotgun shot having struck him in the abdomen.

The son dragged the father into the kitchen and examined his wound, but later returned to the door to plead with the men to go away. They did not believe Mr. Hedges had been shot, and insisted on coming in and three entered. When the

EXODUS FROM KENTUCKY.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 21st.—From practically every county in Central Kentucky come reports that tobacco beds are being plowed up by farmers to make room for other crops. Growers have decided it is the better part of valor to accept the warnings scattered broadcast and not attempt to raise a tobacco crop this year.

As a result of no crop being raised, it is estimated that hundreds of tenants have left the State, or are preparing to leave with their families. They claim they cannot remain in Kentucky. Some farmers, who have been warned, are selling their farms and will leave. One of these is S. B. Nuckols of Woodford county, whose ancestors owned the land for a century.

It is reported that the town of Mt. Sterling is being guarded nightly for fear of raiders. Many threatening letters have been received there, containing powder and matches.

The whole Burley District is practically in a state of demoralization and the situation is growing worse.

Henry M. Anlick, said to be the largest grower in Campbell county, received the following notice through the mail: "Don't you raise any tobacco this year. Signed, Night Riders."

HOW A COLD IN THE HEAD AND NASAL CATARRH CAN BE CURED

Paracamp is Daily Demonstrating Its Marvelous Curative Properties.

At this time of the year, Cold in The Head and Nasal Catarrh are most prevalent. Many users of Paracamp are not aware that it will relieve and cure these ailments.

Don't dose your stomach with powerful drugs which always leave a bad after-effect and in a great many instances do serious harm, but try Paracamp. You will be agreeably surprised at the results.

Take a small quantity on the end of the finger, put it well into the nostril and sniff hard, so as to get the remedy up into the channels of the nose and until it runs back into the throat. Do this until the channels of the nose are opened; then rub the outside of the nose and forehead thoroughly applying Paracamp freely, as this will stimulate the circulation, remove congestion, open the pores and draw out the fever and inflammation by inducing sweating.

When Paracamp is used in this manner, it goes immediately to the diseased and inflamed membranes, cooling, soothing and healing the same. It also kills the disease germs.

The principle of Paracamp is direct contact. It opens the pores of the skin, one of the mediums through which the body throws off its impurities, permitting the soothing, healing oils to penetrate direct to the interior cells, and removing all soreness, fever and inflammation by inducing perspiration.

This treatment should be repeated several times and always upon arising in the morning and at night before retiring.

After a thorough trial, if you are not perfectly satisfied with the results, go to your druggist and he will give you your money back.

Paracamp has relieved many sufferers, and will cure without harming. It does not 'as many other remedies do, deaden the nerves; but stimulates them so they may perform their natural functions.

Paracamp is sold and recommended by

LAW and ORDER

In Kentucky. Prominent Citizens Organize a League For the Protection of Life and Property.

Inspired with a determination to restore law and order in Kentucky, representative business and professional men from throughout the State met at The Seelbach Friday afternoon and formed themselves into an organization to be known as the Law and Order League of Kentucky. The main purpose of the organi- zation at present is to put down night riding in the State and to bring to justice those who for the past few months have been terrorizing people living in the tobacco-growing districts.
The meeting Friday was one of the most enthusiastic held in Louisville in a long time, and probably one of the first steps that will be taken by the organization will be to petition the Governor to call an extra session of the Kentucky Legislature for the specific purpose of enacting measures calculated to bring to an end the lawlessness which now threatens the prosperity of the State.

FIFTY MEN OF AFFAIRS. Probably fifty men of affairs were in attendance at the meeting Friday afternoon. It was held behind closed doors in the Red Room at The Seelbach. After adopting a constitution for the government of the organization, officers were elected as follows:
President—Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner.
Vice-President—James P. Gregory.
Treasurer—John Stiles.
Secretary—A. T. Macdonald.
LAWLESSNESS ITS ONE CONCERN. In the absence of Gen. Buckner, Judge James

P. Gregory presided over the meeting and said that the Law and Order League had only one concern—that of the prevalent lawlessness in Kentucky. He said that it was the intention of the State organization to form local organiza- tions in every county in Kentucky and to uphold the majesty of the law with all the power at its command.

SITUATION SERIOUSLY CONSIDERED. Earnest speeches were made by various rep- resentation present, in which the conditions in Kentucky and the failure of the State Legis- lature to take action on the recommendation of the Governor were discussed at length.
The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon and continued in session until 6 o'clock. Before adjournment it was decided to prepare an address to the people of Kentucky, which was given to the public Saturday afternoon.

CONSTITUTION AS ADOPTED. Following is the constitution, which was unanimously adopted:
First—This organization shall be known as the Law and Order League of Kentucky.
Second—Its purpose shall be to secure and preserve law and order, and to that end to employ every lawful and honorable means.
Third—Every member of a County Law and Order League, in good standing, shall be a member of this League upon said County League being admitted to the State League, which shall be done by vote of the Executive Committee.
Fourth—The officers of this organization shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected annually and perform the duties usually attaching to such offices.

Fifth—Said officers, with three other per- sons to be selected annually, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the League. Said committee shall have general direction of the business of the organization and full power and authority to carry out its purposes, its na- tion, however, being subject to review or di- rection by the Advisory Committee, when a quorum attends and participates. Four mem- bers shall constitute a quorum of the Executive Committee, and fifteen a quorum of the Advi- sory Committee. The Executive Committee or Advisory Committee shall meet at the call of the President, and it shall be the duty of the President to call a meeting of said committee upon written request of a number of members thereof equal to a quorum.
Sixth—Each County League shall have a right to have one representative upon the Advi- sory Committee of this League, and such Advi- sory Committee shall have full control of all business of the State League.
Seventh—The Executive Committee shall have power to fill any and all vacancies which may occur in any office or in the Executive Committee until the next annual election.
Eighth—The annual election shall be held on the first Tuesday in March each year.
Ninth—This constitution may be amended only by a two-thirds vote of all members of the Advisory Committee present after written or printed notice of not less than ten days of purpose of meeting has been mailed by the Secretary to each of the County Leagues.

Alice Smith, colored, died yesterday morn- ing at 3 o'clock at her home near Taylor's Mill of consumption, aged 20 years. Funeral this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY Not only sells the BEST and BROADEST con- tract, but returns LARGER dividends and there- fore insures at a LOW net cost. The new 1908 policy of THE NORTHWESTERN is a marvel of completeness. It covers as many of life's con- tingencies, probable or possible, as can be met by money. It is like a will, except that it provides the estate that it distributes. It contains large loan and cash values. It provides Automatic Paid-up or Extended Insurance, and for Reinsur- atement at any time within FIVE YEARS after lapse. NO OTHER company offers as many or as varied OPTIONS of Settlement, under ANY or ALL of its policies combined, as THE NORTH- WESTERN offers under its ONE policy. For further information apply to
